

the UCR MBA

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

This program is right for you if you want a traditionally robust MBA experience at a nationally ranked and internationally recognized graduate business school, located on one of the fastest growing and most diverse University of California campuses. We are stepping up the pace in a competitive global business world, allowing you to explore new opportunities in business research and cross-disciplinary areas. Work experience is not required, as we help you build your professional experience throughout the program. We guarantee that you will learn and grow with us.

The UCR MBA program allows you to choose a curriculum tailored to your interests and career aspirations, and work alongside expert and diverse faculty that provide exciting new and applied research opportunities. The curriculum stresses the essential interdependencies between hard and soft skills across functional areas, and emphasizes the development of management skills, in addition to strong theoretical foundations.

LAUNCH A FULFILLING CAREER
